Broadway Junior High School

Newark, N. J.

Dedication

Latin America is a land of vast plains, towering mountains, ragged villages and modern cities. It is rich in its own early native cultures and cultures of the Old World, yet, there are imposing edifices which significantly reveal a surge of a more modern civilization. It is perhaps the meeting of these contrasting forces which has caused a great deal of the unrest in this hemisphere.

Our country has profited greatly from our relations with the countries of Latin America. We are tied closely in our economic and cultural structures. Many of the products harvested in the fields of these countries are used in America. Our music, dance, art, literature, architecture and dress overflow with Latin American heritage.

It is our hope that through harmonious effort and mutual understanding the friendly relationships which have existed for so long may become more firmly cemented.

With gratitude for the many varied and rewarding contributions to our nation's culture, we, the graduating class of June 1960, salute the many countries of Latin America.

THE CLASS OF JUNE 1960

Before the graduating class of June 1960 says adios we would like to reflect upon our three years at Broadway.

In September, 1957 about two hundred muchachos loaded into the barco headed for the port of Broadway Junior High. On September 9, we docked at the haven and were wide-eyed at the sights of this new place. We had never passed ports beyond those of Elliot, Summer Avenue, Broadway, or Ridge on any of our previous trips. We soon grew accustomed to our new surroundings. In a short time, as seventh graders, we began to participate in the school life that is so much a part of Broadway.

Most democratically, under the supervision of our counselor, Senor Feldberg, we formed a grade council and elected representatives. Some of our amògos rose to great heights in the Student Council, even held offices. Quickly, coming to the fore were Rosemary Carlo, president, and Renee Martins, vice-president, who served the school well. Other amigos participated in enchanting assembly programs. Notable events took place as the magazine drive, the spring concerts, and also the All City Junior High Musical Festival.

Before long we had passed into the eighth grade. Here we came upon fascinating experiences. The Billboard, our school newspaper, won national acclaim. It was awarded second prize in the annual contest sponsored by Columbia University. Many amigos joined the staff and kept us informed of school affairs. Muchachas rose to peaks by holding offices on the staff and keeping up the fine work. Those who were musically inclined joined the Choruses, Band and Orchestra. Afterward, our eighth grade council sponsored an Apple Blossom Dance. A

Viva, Viva, Hello, Hello,
Here are some friends we're sure you'll know.
We turn back the clock a couple of years,
For a glance at these cute and wonderful dears.

Boys with curls, quiet and shy,
My, how they've grown as the years went by.
Little girls all decked out in laces.
Pose for us here with bright shining faces.

As the years have speedily rambled on,
Our childhood days have come and gone,
No longer are we carefree and gay,
The way we were just yesterday.

Thoughts of the future and trials to come.
We siesta and dream of when we were young.
But we can't be content to sit back and rest,
For the future holds the key to success.

These pictures we leave as we take a step high,
Hasta Lavista, our childhood goodbye.

king and queen were crowned. This was followed by a Halloween Dance. Some of us took hikes to W.B.G.O., Newark schools' radio station, where we took part in various programs. Talents showed forth in art, music, gymnastics, scholarship, and writing as many of us won recognition for these activities. Soon Broadway became part of the Junior National Honor Society. Famed personalities were elected and a few held offices. There were field trips, picnics, dances, and club activities.

All too soon, we passed into our ninth year. Various muchachos joined the basketball team and of course there were girls who cheered them on.

We all enjoyed our lunch periods when we could eat and talk with our friends. Afterwards, we could dance some of our famous espanol bailes to popular records.

As we became seniors, we enjoyed some of the advantages that alone belong to us. Elections were held. The school as decorated with bright posters and fancy designs advertising these candidates seeking offices. Classrooms and corridors echoed with news of the campaign and the popularity poll. There was the 9B-9A Dance, the Senior Luncheon, Senior Class Day, Graduation, and the Prom.

With all this merriment and happiness comes sadness. We must now part with our school and leave our friends and teachers. We must move into other ports and meet stiffer competition. Broadway will always be a part of us. We give all our thanks and deep appreciation to those who have helped us prepare for our future. Thus, we bid adios to Broadway and "muchas gracias!!"

ADIOS

Adios to Broadway means more than a parting,
It's a word to describe tears that are starting,
It's used to define the joys we possess,
And words of sorrow we wish to express.

Knowledge from Broadway we have proudly acquired,
By which our future will be greatly inspired,
We, the graduates, have goals to achieve,
Though on this day how sadly we grieve.

In concluding this our memory book,
Upon our school we shall cast a last look,
For Broadway to our hearts will always be close,
So, this is our parting, Broadway...
Adios!

A MESSAGE FROM THE EDITOR

We have reached the end of our voyage at Broadway Junior High, and have thus far passed another milestone on our climb to success. Although at times the sailing has not been smooth, with the continuous help and guidance of our parents, teachers, grade counselors, and fellow students who have devoted so much of their time and efforts in our behalf, our sojourn at Broadway proved to be a pleasant one.

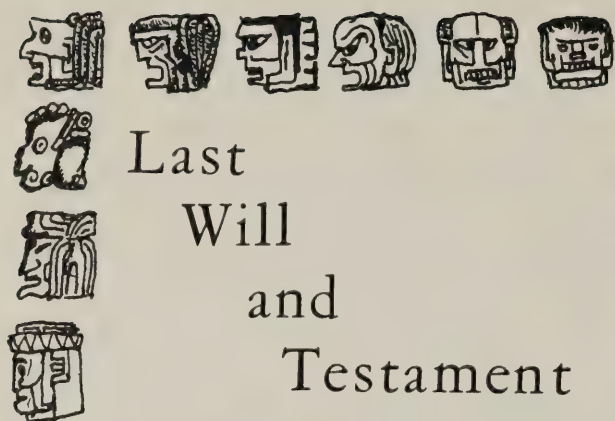

Therefore, let us all pause for a moment and take this final opportunity to extend our deepest appreciation to all of our teachers, from the bottom of our hearts for the valuable training and encouragement they have instilled in us. They are truly deserving of this thanks for preparing us for the schooling which lies ahead. Let us not forget our principal, Mr. Celiano and vice principal, Mrs. Howell.

Finally, and most of all, let me express my gratitude and deep feeling to you my fellow students who made my job as editor-in-chief an enjoyable and profitable experience. I am sure that I have made friends whom I shall never forget.

And so, as the future unfolds before us, and though the paths we take may vary, our memories of Broadway, the school we all love, will linger on.
